

Useful Tips for Writing Book Report

Writing book reports help us broaden our understanding of the world and society. That is what good books do! Remember to include three basic parts in your book report.

1. Introduction (Includes basic information of the book.)

e.g. The Red Badge of Courage, by Stephen Crane, is a book about a young man growing up during the Civil War. Henry Fleming is the main character of the book. As Henry watches and experiences the tragic events of the war, he grows up and changes his attitudes about life.

2. Body (Please choose the following content.)

Summary

(Please weave your own thoughts and impressions into the plot summary.)

The story starts ... Then ... Afterwards ... In the end ...

The book mentioned about ...

Comments

I enjoy reading this book. It tells me ...

The most interesting/ impressive/ exciting part is when ...

I found the book very interesting/ exciting/ scary/ easy /difficult /boring .

The book attracts me because it has...

Reflection

As I read the story I felt ... because ...

I can learn to be honest/ hardworking/ kind/ obedient from (name). He/ She ...

I hope to ... just like (Einstein).

I like /respect /admire (Hercules) because he/ she ...

This story teaches me ...

If I were (Spiderman), I would ...

In the book it mentioned ... , it reminded me of ... and I think ...

If ... happens, I would ...

The sentence ““ is meaningful to me. It reminds me that I should ...

3. Conclusion

I like to read this kind of book as I can learn how to ...

The ending was satisfactory/ sad/ touching. I wish (Cinderella) would ...

I want to tell the author that ... I hope the author will ...

I enjoy reading this book. I would recommend this book to my friends.

